

176

The Feast of Feasts

Thomas Baird 1863-1933

GILBERT 8 5 8 3

Alfred P. Gibbs

Thoughtfully

1. On that night of nights most sol - emn, Je - sus called His own
 2. Then this feast of feasts He or - dered, Feast of grace Di - vine;
 3. Thus His death of deaths is shad owed In this sim - ple way,
 4. 'Till the morn of morns bright dawn - ing, Earth's dark shad - ows passed;
 5. Then the Lord of lords de - scend - ing From the ra - diant sky,
 6. Thus the day of days shall o - pen, Death-less, cloud - less, fair;

'Round the ta - ble of re - mem - brance, All a - lone.
 Sa - cred sym - bols He ap - point - ed, Bread and wine.
 Look - ing back - ward, point - ing up - ward, To that day.
 And the splen - dour of God's glo - ry Breaks at last.
 Shout - ing all His ran - somed myr - iads Home on high!
 In that day, the Sav - ior's glo - ries We shall share!

Copyright Alfred P. Gibbs 1946. By per.

177

Savior, We Remember Thee!

S. Trevor Francis 1835

ZACHER 7 7 7 7

Composer Unknown

1. Sav - ior, we re - mem - ber Thee! Thy deep woe and ag - o - ny,
 2. Cal - va - ry! O Cal - va - ry! Mer - cy's vast un - fath - omed sea,
 3. Dark - ness hung a - round Thy head, When for sin Thy blood was shed,
 4. Je - sus, Lord, Thou now art ris'n! Thou hast all our sins for - giv'n;
 5. Soon, with joy - ful, glad sur - prise, We shall hear Thy word - A - rise!
 6. Sav - ior, we Thy love a - dore; We will praise Thee more and more;

All Thy suf - fring on the tree, Sav - ior, we a - dore Thee!
 Love, e - ter - nal love to me. Sav - ior, we a - dore Thee!
 Vic - tim in the sin - ner's stead. Sav - ior, we a - dore Thee!
 Haste we to our home in heav'n. Sav - ior, we a - dore Thee!
 Mounting up - ward to the skies. Glo - ry, glo - ry, glo - ry!
 Spread Thy name from shore to shore! Sav - ior, we a - dore Thee!

Alternates: Innocents No. 40; Trusting No. 201